THE UN CUT DIAMONDS

"Just as they were found in the mine" is attracting much attention. I will have them on exhibition this week, when they will be sent to the cutters. You are welcome to see them.

Treasures

A mere glance at a good diamond is ample as indicating its quality. This can be in truth applied to the value of the stones which you may chance to examine out of our large collection, every solitary stone not falling into the class of "diamonds" but of "gem." And equally emphatic will even these of moderate cost prove.

JEWISH FESTIVAL BEGINS

CELEBRATION OF THE NEW YEAR
 WILL CONTINUE UNTIL OCT. 13.

World is 5,064 Years Old, According to the Jewish Calendar—"Yom Kippur" Sept. 30.

The Jewish New Year is being celebrated in the different Jewish churches of the city. It is known as the year 5664, and began at sundown Monday. With the new year begins the celebration of a feast, which will continue until Oct. 13. Friday will be another feast day, when Rabbi Messing will preach on "Repentance," "Yom Kippur," the day of atonement, is celebrated Sept. 30.

In the Jewish calendar the coming year is numbered 5664 and traditionally dates from the creation of the world. The pious Israelite regards the New Year festival as one of solemn import, second only to the great feast of Yom Kippur. It is the season when those who have been regardless of their religious duties and obligations during the past year, or careless in their observance, come to a realization of their neglect and hasten to join with their observing brethren in the celebration of the New Year festival and the duties incident thereto. The celebration of the festival is almost universal among those of the Jewish faith. It is the occasion for many family reunions in some localities, members of families coming from far and near to join in the season of rejoicing.

Among the quaint customs which survive among the ultra-orthodox Jews, customarily of Polish, Russian and Roumanian immigrants, is that known as "Tashlich." It is the custom among these people to go to the riverbank on the afternoon of the first day of the festival of the New Year and to empty their pockets and shake their garments over the water.

This is done to typify the casting of the sins of the people into the sea, according to the ancient promise of God to Israel, which is given in the ritual in the following words: "You, thou hast promised that thou wilt cast out all sin, and all the sins of thy people, the House of Israel, into the depths of the sea; thou wilt cast them into a place where they shall not be remembered, nor visited, nor thought of forever."

CONFERENCE IN FT. WAYNE

CHARITIES AND CORRECTION MEETING BEGINS THERE TO-DAY.

Topics of Importance Will Be Discussed by Men Well Known in the Work-The Programme.

There was a bustle of activity in the office of the State Board of Charities yesterday. Secretary Butler was preparing to leave for Fort Wayne to attend the twelfth annual state conference of Charities and Corrections, which begins to-day. The officers of the conference are: President, Alexander Johnson, of Fort Wayne; vice president, Thomas C. Day, Indianapolis; John M. Bloss, Muncie; the Rev. J. H. Guendling, Peru; A. Horz, Terre Haute; T. A. McGovern, Logansport; Mrs. Julia S. Conklin, Westfield; Marvin Campbell, South Bend; W. H. French, Evansville; Mrs. L. M. Beck, Bloomington; Mrs. John L. Griffith, Indianapolis.

Prof. Thomas F. Moran, of Lafayette, is secretary of the conference, and the following are the members of the executive committee: George A. H. Shideler, Marion T. E. Ellison, Fort Wayne; Timothy Nicholson, Richmond; T. J. Charlton, Hanover; Miss Mary T. Wilson, Evansville; Prof. U. C. West, Westfield; Prof. W. H. Noyes, Terre Haute; John H. Holliday, Indianapolis; E. A. K. Hackett, Fort Wayne; W. C. Ball, Terre Haute; C. M. Kimbrough, Muncie; D. J. Terhune, Linton; Dr. S. E. Smith, Richmond; Dr. J. C. Plafin, Plainfield; William P. Cooper, Fort Wayne; Mrs. Isaac Wolf, Mt. Vernon; Nan B. Wood, Sullivan.

The conference will be held in the First Presbyterian Church at Fort Wayne. The conference will be called to order Wednesday evening, and will close Friday evening. Thursday morning the general topic will be "Home Finding and Child Helping." Thursday evening will be "Cooperation in Neighborly Helpfulness." The general topic announced for Friday morning is "County Charities and Officers." Friday evening "The Juvenile Court and the Probation Officers" will be discussed.

ROUND TABLE WORK.

A feature of the programme is the "round table" work. The discussions are designed to consist of short statements of practical value. One of the round table meetings will be presided over by Chairman John M. Brown, auditor of St. Joseph county, and the topic for discussion is "County and Township Charities." Another round table session will discuss "State Institutions," and the chairman will be W. C. Ball, of Terre Haute. The Juvenile Court round table promises to be productive of much interest, and at this session Judge James E. Piety, of Terre Haute, will be the chairman. Eugene H. Iglehart, of Evansville, will be in charge of the "Child Saving" round table.

Neatly printed conference programmes have been received at the office of the Board of Charities. These programmes are from the printing department of the Indiana Boys' School at Plainfield and are a fair sample of the regularly turned out by the school. It is urged that those interested in all forms of public and private charities, in the care of children, the aged and the unfortunate, in reforming the erring or restraining the vicious should attend this conference. It is pointed out that among those who are interested in social conditions, county commissioners, township trustees, members of boards of county charities, judges and other county and state officials are invited to attend the conference. It is suggested that about two million dollars of taxes are spent every year in Indiana in maintaining police and correctional institutions and in poor relief given by township trustees. This is a large sum of money, and the taxes collected in the State. The programmes declare that "everybody is interested in attending the conference who is interested in knowing how this money is spent, why it is spent, how it can be reduced in amount and how it can be spent to the best advantage."

CAPT. J. L. BIELER HONORED

HE IS ELECTED SUPREME COMMANDER I. O. OF K. OF P.

Biennial Session of Supreme Lodge Holds All-Day Session—Next Meeting at Washington, D. C.

The Supreme Lodge of the Improved Order of Knights of Pythias, which is holding its biennial session in this city, held an all-day session yesterday, concluding the business of the day with the election of officers at 6 o'clock last night. The greater part of the day was devoted to routine business. The lodge is attending to complete all business so that the session can be adjourned by noon to-day. Last night a banquet was held in Germania Hall, at which there were about 100 members of the order. The finale of the convention will be a trolley ride to Germania Park this afternoon and in the evening to Bellevue where supper will be served.

The following officers were elected yesterday to serve during the ensuing two years: Past supreme commander, Oscar Brede, of Detroit; supreme commander, Captain J. L. Bieler, of Indianapolis; supreme vice commander, Otto Mueller, of Baltimore; supreme delegate, Charles T. Schweger, of Washington, D. C.; supreme treasurer, Charles Kaum, of Baltimore; supreme scribe, E. F. Jones, of Indianapolis; supreme sergeant-at-arms, Wolfgang Bauer, of Syracuse, N. Y.; supreme medical examiner, Dr. C. B. Schaefer, of Indiana. The next convention of the Supreme Lodge will be held in 1906 in Washington, D. C.

COSTS MORE TO TAKE A BATH.

Patrons of Home Heating Company Find Their Bills Increased.

The Home Heating and Lighting Company has just sent out bills for hot water heating, which are causing more or less comment among the patrons. The bills include a charge for heaters for bathing purposes that heretofore have been furnished free. The extra charge will be from $15 to $20 a year. He says that the company cannot afford to furnish bathing heaters free, as the heating oil requires more fuel. There is some talk of the citizens resisting the increase in the costs.

IN RAILWAY MAIL SERVICE.

Annual Examinations for Clerks Taken by Sixty-One Applicants.

The annual examination for railway mail service clerks was held yesterday in Germania Hall. Sixty-one men took the examination, who, if they are successful, will be placed on the eligible list of the mail service and will be given positions when they become open. The men will be listed according to the grades they received in this examination, and those receiving the highest grades have the best opportunities of securing places as soon as they are vacant. The positions are almost entirely as mail clerks on the trains, and consequently the grades they receive in this examination will be of great importance in passing the examinations is a thorough knowledge of the geography of the cities of the country. Those passing the examination are placed on the eligible list, which is good for one year, beginning the first of January. At the end of that time those who have

INDIANA AUTHORS AT FAIR.

State Librarian Henry's Suggestion Is Approved by Senator Goodwin.

W. E. Henry, state librarian, is in favor of making an exhibit of the work of Indiana authors at the St. Louis exposition, and will take up the matter with the committee on educational exhibits. Mr. Henry was recently selected to have charge of the library exhibit at the fair. He suggests that library shelves be built in the reading room, and that a large collection of Indiana stories be placed there for the public to peruse. Senator Goodwin, chairman of the educational committee, approves the plan. If the idea is carried out, it will be the different writers of the State will be asked to contribute copies of their work.

WAS CHAMPION PRINTER

PETER THIENES HAD A NATIONAL REPUTATION YEARS AGO.

Bright's Disease Proves Fatal to Him After an Illness of Over a Year's Duration.

Peter Thienes, of 919 North Alabama street, died last night at 9:45 o'clock at the family home, after an illness of several months, due to Bright's disease, which had steadily been pulling him down. Mr. Thienes was a printer by trade and had followed that vocation all his life. He acquired for himself, in the days before typesetting machines, a national reputation as a rapid compositor. In Philadelphia, at a contest held many years ago, Mr. Thienes won the first prize and the recognition as the fastest typesetter in the United States. Among the printers of the country he was well known.

Mr. Thienes was born in Edinburgh, Ind., in 1857, and learned his trade of a printer on a country paper. He married Miss Barbara Lavelle, of Richmond, in 1879, and several years later removed to Indianapolis, where, except for short intervals, he was always employed. He leaves, besides his wife, seven children, of which three are boys and four girls. The eldest son, Clement, is studying for the priesthood in Belgium. The time of the funeral services will be announced later.

FORTY YEARS FREE MEN

NEGROES OF THE CITY CELEBRATE THEIR EMANCIPATION.

Mayor Bookwalter, Consul Furness and Others Deliver Addresses in Bethel A. M. E. Church.

Bethel A. M. E. church, at the corner of Vermont and Toledo streets, was well filled last night, when appropriate exercises were held in observance of the anniversary of the issuing of the proclamation of emancipation by Abraham Lincoln on Sept. 22, 1862. The programme consisted of short addresses by prominent men of the city and by Dr. Furness, consul to Brazil, a colored man appointed under the administration of William McKinley, and who is now in this country on a furlough.

The address that was the most appreciated and applauded was that of Mayor Charles A. Bookwalter, who recalled the great deeds of Lincoln, and especially the signing of the document that made the negro free citizens. Mayor Bookwalter said he believed the negroes should have the same protection in municipal affairs as the white men and that they have earned their rights by conscientious and sincere support of the party which recognized their right to citizenship.

Mayor Bookwalter's address was the opening speech and was not long, as he had another engagement and was forced to leave early in the evening. Following his address, Consul Furness spoke on the opportunities of the negro, given by Lincoln by his act and every profession of the country. Judge Whallon, of the Police Court, also made a short talk. The colored speakers were J. H. Lott and Gurley Brewer, editor of the World, and the Rev. J. H. Lott, president. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served in the church parlors.

BOOKS FOR THE PUBLIC

MEMBERS OF LIBRARY COMMISSION WILL BE BUSY DURING OCTOBER.

Association Will Hold Its Meeting Oct. 1 and 2 in Statehouse—Farmers' Institute Work.

October promises to be a busy month in the office of the Public Library Commission. Oct. 1 and 2 the Indiana Library Association will hold its meeting in the Statehouse and the commission will be kept busy attending to the needs of the many who take this opportunity to confer with the commission staff concerning library matters.

The addresses at the opening of the Carnegie library building at Danville, Oct. 3, will be delivered by Judge Hadley, of this city, and Miss Hoagland, library officer of the Carnegie Library of New York. Latta, superintendent of the Farmers' Institutes, has invited the organizer to attend the Farmers' Institute at Danville, Oct. 13 and 14. In response to Professor Latta's request the commission will arrange for the organizer's attendance at a limited number of farmers' institutes, where the subject of books for the home will be presented.

The Indiana Federation of Clubs will have a discussion of the traveling libraries and their benefits at the Loganport meeting. Miss Hoagland has been invited to speak to the members on this subject. The first edition of the finding lists of the traveling libraries has been exhausted and the lists are being revised, and a subject catalogue will be issued in a short time. The finding lists of the study clubs' libraries will be ready for distribution in a few days.

Oct. 11 the new Carnegie Library building at Alexandria will be dedicated to the public with appropriate exercises. Addison Harris will deliver an address, also Miss Hoagland. During the part of October and early in November a series of library institutes will be conducted at various points in the State. At present there is an awakening of interest in library affairs is gratifying to the commission, which is making every effort to meet it satisfactorily.

SCHOOL OF ILLUSTRATION.

A school of illustration has been started at the Benjamin Harrison School for the benefit of city teachers. Mr. Thorne Thompson has been engaged as instructor by the School Board. He has had much experience, having taught in several colleges. Much of his time has also been devoted to lecturing. He displays great ability in his sketching and drawing, and is a very rapid worker. In a very short time, with a few rapid strokes of his pencil, he creates whole landscapes. At present there are about seventy-five teachers in attendance, divided into classes of twenty-five. Each teacher is required to go before the board. Mr. Thompson will give his final lesson next Saturday.

New Piano, $105 and up. Walschner's.

JUDGE RYAN WILL SPEAK

ST. LOUIS JURIST WILL TALK ON THE LIFE OF ROBERT EMMET.

He Presided at Trials of Sixteen of the Alleged St. Louis Bombers—To-Night's Meeting.

Judge O'Neill Ryan, of St. Louis, who is to deliver the oration at the Emmet celebration at Masonic Hall to-night, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon from Buffalo, and is at the Grand Hotel. Sept. 20, the hundred years ago, the Irish patriot, Robert Emmet, was executed. In most cities the celebration took place on the 20th. Judge Ryan spoke at Buffalo that night, and it was necessary to fix a different date for the Indianapolis celebration in order that he might speak here.

Many of these meetings have been held throughout the East, and Judge Ryan says they only were held for the public to peruse. Senator Goodwin, chairman of the educational committee, approves the plan. If the idea is carried out, it will be the different writers of the State will be asked to contribute copies of their work.

TRANSMOM THEE IS BUSY

MISS KATE FOUST ROBBED OF JEWELRY VALUED AT $1,000.

Job Evidently Done by Same Man Who Entered Rooms at Claypool and Denison Hotels.

A housebreaker entered the Foster home, at 204 North New Jersey street, and succeeded in getting away with about $1,000 worth of jewelry belonging to Miss Kate Foust, a sister-in-law of the late Gen. Robert S. Foster, and the loss was not discovered until yesterday.

The police were at once notified and an investigation was made, but no clue to the thief was discovered. Miss Foust kept the jewels in a chamois bag, which she concealed in the back part of a bureau drawer, and the last time she saw them was on Saturday night, when she placed them away for safekeeping. The sneak thief left no traces of his visit to the house, and as all the doors and windows were locked it is evident that he made his entrance to the apartments of Miss Foust by climbing over the transom.

The police and detectives are of opinion that the robberies in the apartments of John W. Holtzman in the Claypool Hotel and Mr. Noble's apartments in the Denison last week were the work of the thief who stole the property of Miss Foust, and there is no doubt but that it is the work of one experienced in the art of sneak-thieving.

Miss Foust said that among the things stolen from her were diamond rings, pins and brooches, a watch and chain and several articles of jewelry valuable to her on account of their associations. On account of the recent state fair and the horse show, Neumann was released on a bond of $200 and is now in the city, it is said.

NEUMANN WILL FIGHT CASE.

Salvage Corps Captain May Take His Trouble to Higher Court.

Captain M. F. Neumann, of the Salvage Corps, was yesterday bound over to the grand jury by Judge Whallon, of the Police Court, pending the investigation of the charges of assault and battery with intent to kill Max Drach several weeks ago. Drach is the proprietor of the Jefferson Hotel and as the result of a little mix up with Neumann he was laid up at home for several days with a few broken ribs and a badly bruised head, while Neumann was locked up. The Police Court yesterday Neumann became excited while being questioned by the attorneys and at times fairly shouted his answers to the queries.

Neumann was released on a bond of $200 and is now in the city, it is said.

BOY SAW MURDER DONE.

Police Find Eyewitness to the Death of William H. Collins.

An eyewitness to the murder of William H. Collins was yesterday found by the police in the person of nine-year-old Joe Davis, of 82 Elm street. The boy said he saw the negro strike Collins at the corner of Virginia avenue and Buchanan street on Sunday afternoon and that he saw him being carried to the City Hospital. Drach is the proprietor of the Jefferson Hotel and as the result of a little mix up with Neumann he was laid up at home for several days with a few broken ribs and a badly bruised head, while Neumann was locked up. The Police Court yesterday Neumann became excited while being questioned by the attorneys and at times fairly shouted his answers to the queries.

Neumann was released on a bond of $200 and is now in the city, it is said.

BOTH ARE LOCKED UP.

Judge Whallon Sends Joseph and May Keys to County Jail.

Joseph Keys and his divorced wife, May Keys, were before Judge Whallon, of the Police Court, yesterday morning. Joseph on the charge of profanity, and May on a charge of petit larceny preferred by her former husband. On Monday, Keys, who claimed that his wife stole a watch and ring from him, called a Patrolman Hoffbauer and demanded its recovery. He stated that the former Mrs. Keys be arrested and used such language that the patrolman locked both the accused and the accuser up at the police station. Judge Whallon continued their cases until next Friday.

THE WOES OF OLIVER S. CLAY.

Judge Whallon Binds the "Claysonian" Over to the Grand Jury.

Oliver S. Clay, of the "Claysonian," was yesterday bound over to the grand jury in the Police Court on a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill. It was alleged that he was recently tried to a half dozen patrolmen of the city police department while they were placing him under arrest for carrying concealed weapons. In case the grand jury fails to indict Clay he will be tried in the Police Court for carrying concealed weapons.

Old Man Found Ill.

Charles Wiseman, an old man living at 612 Woodlawn avenue, was found lying helplessly ill in his bed at home by a Patrolman Mullen yesterday afternoon, and was sent to the City Hospital. Mrs. Wiseman has not been near her home for over a week, and the invalid husband said he believed she was working for some family by the day while he was lying near to death's door, in destitute circumstances at home.

Will Hold Examinations.

James Epperson, inspector of mines, will hold an examination for the State Sept. 22 and 23 and Oct. 1 for those who are applying for certificates of competency to serve as mine bosses, fire bosses and hoisting engineers. The examination will be held in the county school superintendent's office at Terra Haute, beginning at 9 a. m. each day and closing at 5 p. m. The written questions will be used on the 22nd, the oral on the 23rd and Oct. 1. All the citizens are eligible. Those of foreign birth must file naturalization papers before taking examination. All candidates must register not later than 10 o'clock a. m., Sept. 22.

MAY RECOVER HIS EYESIGHT.

Operation on William H. Schmidt May Be Entirely Successful.

William H. Schmidt, former county treasurer, was operated upon yesterday morning at the Fletcher Sanatorium with the hope of restoring his reason and his eyesight. For some time Mr. Schmidt has been totally blind, and from the trouble with his eyes his brain became affected. The operation yesterday was a delicate one, but it is hoped that it will be successful. The operation was performed by Dr. Fletcher and Dr. Spink, assisted by Dr. Alvin Graham. The skull was entered by cutting out a piece of bone about one and a half inches in diameter from the back of the head, and an examination of the brain was made by the specialists. Dr. Fletcher says he believes the operation will be successful and he thinks Mr. Schmidt's chances for recovery are good.

HE WANTED TO DIE.

Frank Gilby Took Morphine and Accomplished His Wish.

Frank Gilby, 118 Kentucky avenue, took morphine and died yesterday afternoon as was his wish. He had been despondent for some time over financial affairs. His mother found him lying in a dying condition in his bed shortly before noon, and medical attention was summoned at once, but he was too far gone for any human aid.

Must Be Vaccinated.

In an opinion given by Attorney General Miller, it is held that where a county Health Board gives an order requiring children to be vaccinated before they shall be admitted to the schools, the trustees of the schools must obey the order. The attorney general's opinion is based on a case from Grant county, where some school patrons objected to such an order. Some of the trustees from that county came to the city to consult with the attorney general regarding the matter.
